

Plum LISA Terms and Conditions - June 2026

Introduction

This agreement (the “Lifetime ISA Terms” or “LISA Terms”) is between you, the customer (“Customer”, “you”, “your”) and Saveable Limited, a company registered in England and Wales under company number 09777255 and registered at Floor 2, 2-7 Clerkenwell Green, EC1R 0DE, London (“Plum”, “we”, “us”, “our”).

These LISA Terms relate to the provision of certain services by Plum to you in relation to your Plum Lifetime ISA (“Plum LISA”; “LISA” or “Plum Lifetime ISA”) and the LISA Services.

These LISA Terms act as an addendum to the Plum General Terms and Conditions that you read, and accepted. These LISA Terms, its subject matter, and its formation, are governed by English law. You and we both agree that the courts of England and Wales will have non-exclusive jurisdiction. However, if you are a resident of Northern Ireland you may also bring proceedings in Northern Ireland, and if you are resident of Scotland, you may also bring proceedings in Scotland.

You are entering into this agreement because you wish to receive the LISA Services from Plum, and any rights or obligations which you may have or be subject to under these LISA Terms are in addition to the rights and obligations arising under the Plum General Terms and Conditions to which you are a party. The Plum General Terms and Conditions will continue to apply to you when accessing and using the LISA Services. To the extent that any conflicts arise between the provisions of these LISA Terms and the Plum General Terms and Conditions in relation to the LISA Services, these LISA Terms will prevail.

Throughout this agreement, we use certain capitalised terms. A full list of these capitalised terms can be found in the Glossary of these LISA Terms. For any capitalised term not defined in the Glossary of these LISA Terms, the definition is the one given in the Plum General Terms & Conditions.

These LISA Terms contain important information that you need to read carefully and acknowledge. If you have any questions or doubts about any of the content in these LISA Terms, you should seek appropriate independent professional advice before opening your Plum Lifetime ISA.

There may be circumstances that require us to make changes to these LISA Terms and the charges being made. If a change we are proposing will be material to you, we will provide you with at least 30 calendar days’ prior notice of that change, unless we need to make the change sooner because of legal or regulatory requirements in which case we will make the information available within one business day of making the change. If we make a change that is not material to you, we can make such a change immediately. By continuing to use the LISA Services, or by failing to notify us of your objection within the notice period, you agree to be bound by the revised LISA Terms.

Changes in this section mean changes to these LISA Terms. We do not, for example, mean any changes to interest rates or notice periods applicable to the Plum LISA. The interest rate may go up and down. We will notify you of any change to the interest rate subject to the Key Features Document (“KFD”) of the LISA which is provided when you open your account and on the Plum website.

You can cancel your LISA within 30 calendar days. Your deposited funds will be returned in full, and the amount will not count towards your annual ISA limit.

If you close your LISA after 30 days, you can transfer it to another LISA provider (subject to their terms and conditions), and the government will not charge you a penalty.

However, if you close your LISA after 30 days and do not transfer out, the money will be withdrawn and made available in your Plum Wallet. In this case, the government will apply a 25% penalty on any withdrawal that is not an Eligible Withdrawal (first home purchase, retirement at age 60, or terminal illness—see Section 2.16), and the amount will still count towards your annual ISA allowance.

You will only earn a government bonus on contributions you make and not on any interest you earn on your LISA. Interest is accrued daily on the cleared balance held (government bonus and contributions) and paid monthly. The bonus interest rate we offer is calculated daily but paid after the 12 month anniversary of opening the LISA with Plum.

If you close or transfer out within the twelve (12) month period after opening your Lifetime ISA with Plum you will not be paid the Plum bonus and forfeit any interest earned that month that is not yet paid .

- 3.10. There may, on occasion, be additional money paid to your LISA, including any bonus offering. The structure of these offerings will be clearly explained to you when they are introduced, and information on them will be available in the most recent Key Features Document (“KFD”) of the LISA.

bank.

- 6.3. For the purpose of the FCA Rules, which require us to categorise our customers, we will categorise you as a 'retail client' in accordance with the FCA's client categorisation criteria.
